His journey toward self-discovery is marked by revelations that challenge his understanding of himself and his relationships.

Veronica

Veronica is Tony's ex-girlfriend and a pivotal figure in his past. Her character serves as a catalyst for Tony's reflection on his youth. Second Part: Reflection and Revelation

The second part of the novel shifts to Tony's present, where he confronts the legacy left to him. As he delves into Adrian's diary and his past with Veronica, the narrative takes on a more introspective tone.
