Understanding this organization helps in navigating the text more effectively and focusing on the most significant portions.

The Old Testament

The Old Testament primarily documents the history, laws, prophecies, and poetry of the Hebrew people. It consists of several types of books:

- The Pentateuch (Torah): The first five books, including Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy, cover creation, early history, and the law given to Israel.
- Historical Books: Narratives of Israel's history from conquest to exile, such as Joshua, Judges, and Kings.
- Wisdom Literature: Books like Psalms, Proverbs, and Ecclesiastes, containing poetry and wise sayings.

- Prophetic Books: Writings of prophets such as Isaiah, Jeremiah, and Ezekiel, who delivered God's messages to the people.

The New Testament

The New Testament focuses on the life and teachings of Jesus Christ and the early Christian church. It includes:

- The Gospels: Four accounts of Jesus' life, death, and resurrection—Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John.
- Acts of the Apostles: A historical account of the early church's formation and spread.
- Epistles: Letters written by apostles like Paul to churches and individuals, providing instruction and encouragement.
