

low level barrows guide osrs

Low level Barrows guide OSRS: If you're a player in Old School RuneScape (OSRS) looking to tackle Barrows with a lower combat level, you've come to the right place. Barrows is a great PvM (player versus monster) activity that offers excellent rewards, including powerful weapons and armor. This guide will walk you through the essentials of successfully completing Barrows at a low level, providing tips, strategies, and an in-depth look at what to expect.

Understanding Barrows

Barrows is a minigame located in Morytania, where players battle against six brothers, each possessing unique abilities and combat styles. The goal is to defeat all six brothers and loot their crypts to obtain valuable items. The rewards are significant, making it a popular choice for players looking to enhance their gear.

Requirements to Access Barrows

Before you embark on your Barrows adventure, ensure you meet the following requirements:

1. Quest Requirements:

- Complete the quest "In Search of the Myreque" to access the Barrows area.

2. Level Requirements:

- While there are no strict combat level requirements, a minimum combat level of 70 is advisable for a smoother experience. However, players as low as combat level 50 can successfully complete Barrows with the right strategies.

3. Skill Requirements:

- Having decent levels in the following skills will help:
- Prayer: 43 for Protect from Melee.
- Ranged or Magic: Useful for dealing with the brothers from a distance.
- Defence: Higher levels will help reduce damage taken.

Preparing for Barrows

Preparation is key to a successful Barrows run, especially for low-level players. Here's how to get ready:

Equipment Setup

Your equipment plays a crucial role in your success. Here's a recommended setup:

- Weapons:
- Ranged:
 - Use a shortbow with steel or mithril arrows.
- Magic:
 - Use a staff like the Air Staff or a Mystic Wand to cast spells like Fire Bolt.
- Armor:
- Ranged:
 - Use a combination of the best available Ranged armor, such as:
 - Green D'hide body and chaps.
- An Amulet of Power.
- Magic:
 - Equip Mystic robes for better magic bonuses.
- Prayer Gear:
 - Equip items that provide prayer bonuses, such as:
 - A god book or a prayer cape if available.

Inventory Setup

Here's a recommended inventory layout for your Barrows runs:

- Food:
 - 10-20 Sharks or Saradomin Brews for healing.
- Potions:
 - 1-2 Super restore potions to replenish prayer points.
 - 1-2 Saradomin Brews for additional healing and boosts.
- Teleportation Items:
 - A teleportation spell or an item like a Games Necklace for a quick exit.
- Runes:
 - Bring a sufficient amount of runes for your chosen combat style.
- Miscellaneous:
 - A spade to dig into the Barrows crypts.

- A few prayer potions if you have access to them.

Executing the Barrows Run

Once you are fully prepared, it's time to dive into the Barrows. Follow these steps to maximize your efficiency:

Getting There

- Use the Teleport to House spell and then a Games Necklace to teleport to the Burthorpe Games Room.
- Run south to the Barrows area or use the Morytania achievement diaries to unlock faster methods.

Fighting the Brothers

Each brother has a unique combat style and attack method. Here's how to deal with them effectively:

1. Ahrim the Blighted (Magic)

- Equip ranged gear to fight him from a distance.
- Use Protect from Magic when his health is low to negate damage.

2. Karil the Tainted (Ranged)

- Use melee or magic to fight him.
- Activate Protect from Missiles to reduce damage taken.

3. Guthan the Infested (Melee)

- Bring food to heal and use ranged or magic attacks.
- Since he heals upon hitting you, avoid close combat if possible.

4. Torag the Corrupted (Melee)

- Similar to Guthan, stick to ranged or magic attacks.
- Use food to maintain health.

5. Verac the Defiled (Melee)

- Watch out for his special attack that ignores armor.
- Bring extra food and use ranged or magic.

6. Dharok the Wretched (Melee)

- Avoid getting hit as he deals massive damage when low on health.

- Use ranged or magic and keep your health topped up.

Looting the Crypts

After defeating all six brothers, you can loot their crypts. Here's what to do:

- Digging: Use your spade to dig at the marked location. Be prepared to fight the revenant that appears.
- Looting: After defeating the revenant, check the chest for loot. Look out for valuable items such as:
 - Barrows equipment (like the items from each brother).
 - Runes and other loot.

Tips for Low-Level Players

To improve your chances of success as a low-level player, consider these tips:

- Practice Your Combat Skills: Improve your combat skills before heading to Barrows. Higher levels will make the fights significantly easier.
- Bring a Friend: If possible, team up with another player to split the workload and make it easier to defeat the brothers.
- Use Food Wisely: Don't waste your food; only eat when necessary.
- Learn the Patterns: Each brother has unique attack patterns. Learning these can help you avoid unnecessary damage.
- Keep Track of Your Runs: Log your runs to determine which brothers drop the best loot for you and to optimize your time spent.

Conclusion

In summary, the low level Barrows guide OSRS provides you with the necessary knowledge to tackle one of the most rewarding activities in the game. With proper preparation, the right gear, and effective strategies, even lower-level players can enjoy the thrill of Barrows and potentially walk away with some of the best items in the game. So gather your gear, prepare your inventory, and get ready to take on the Barrows brothers. Happy hunting!

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the best setup for low level Barrows runs in OSRS?

For low level Barrows runs, use a combination of gear that provides good magic and prayer bonuses. Recommended gear includes Mystic robes for magic attack and defense, a God book for prayer bonuses, and an Amulet of glory for teleportation. Bring runes for spells like Wind Blast and a few prayer potions.

How do I access the Barrows minigame in OSRS?

To access the Barrows minigame, you need to travel to Mort'ton, located in the Morytania region. You can use the teleportation options available through the Ectophial or the Kharyrll teleport if you've completed the quest 'A Soul's Bane'. Once there, head to the Barrows mounds.

What are the recommended combat levels for low level Barrows?

For low level Barrows, a combat level of around 70 is recommended. This should include at least 43 Prayer for protecting against the Barrows brothers' attacks and a decent magic level to deal effective damage. Having high Ranged and Defense levels will also help.

How can I efficiently kill the Barrows brothers with low stats?

To efficiently kill the Barrows brothers with low stats, use the Protect from Magic prayer against Ahrim and Protect from Missiles against Karil. Utilize ranged attacks from a distance to avoid damage and keep your prayer points high with potions and restoration items.

What should I do if I run out of supplies during a low level Barrows run?

If you run out of supplies during a low level Barrows run, retreat to a safe spot and use the Teleport to House spell to restock. Alternatively, you can use the Ectophial to teleport to Port Phasmatys and then return to Mort'ton for a quick restock of food and potions.
