2. Jackie Parker (1948-1950) - A versatile athlete who excelled not only at quarterback but also as a running back and defensive back. Parker's contributions helped establish the program's identity.
3. Don Smith (1958-1960) - Known for his leadership, Smith helped guide the Bulldogs to competitive seasons in the late 1950s.

The 1960s: The Rise of the Passing Game
