Latest MKR Recipes to Try

Here are some of the standout recipes from the latest season of "My Kitchen Rules" that you can recreate at home:

1. Spicy Thai Green Curry

This vibrant dish is bursting with flavors and is perfect for a comforting meal.

Ingredients:

- 500g chicken breast, sliced
- 2 tablespoons green curry paste
- 1 can coconut milk
- 1 cup chicken stock
- 1 cup mixed vegetables (bell peppers, zucchini, and carrots)

- 2 tablespoons fish sauce
- 1 tablespoon brown sugar
- Fresh basil leaves for garnish

Instructions:

1. Heat a large pot over medium heat and add the green curry paste. Fry for about 2 minutes until fragrant.
2. Add the sliced chicken and cook until browned.
3. Pour in the coconut milk and chicken stock, bringing the mixture to a simmer.
4. Stir in the mixed vegetables, fish sauce, and brown sugar. Cook until the vegetables are tender.
5. Serve hot, garnished with fresh basil leaves, alongside jasmine rice.

2. Deconstructed Beef Wellington

A modern twist on the classic dish, this recipe simplifies the preparation while retaining its elegance.

Ingredients:

- 500g beef fillet
- 200g mushrooms, finely chopped
- 100g prosciutto
- 1 sheet puff pastry
- 1 egg, beaten
- Salt and pepper to taste

Instructions:

1. Preheat the oven to 200°C (392°F).
2. Season the beef fillet with salt and pepper. Sear in a hot pan for 2-3 minutes on each side until browned.
3. In the same pan, add the chopped mushrooms and cook until moisture evaporates. Remove from heat.
4. Roll out the puff pastry and layer the prosciutto, followed by the mushroom mixture.
5. Place the seared beef on top and wrap the pastry around it. Brush with beaten egg.
6. Bake for 20-25 minutes until golden brown. Let it rest before slicing.

3. Lemon Tart with Raspberry Coulis

This dessert is a perfect balance of tartness and sweetness, making it an ideal end to any meal.

Ingredients:

- 1 pre-made tart shell
- 3 eggs
- 2/3 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup fresh lemon juice
- Zest of 2 lemons
- 1/4 cup cream
- Fresh raspberries for garnishing

Instructions:

1. Preheat the oven to 175°C (347°F).
2. In a bowl, whisk together eggs and sugar until pale. Add lemon juice and zest, mixing well.
3. Stir in the cream and pour the mixture into the tart shell.
4. Bake for 25-30 minutes until just set. Let cool before serving.
5. For the raspberry coulis, blend fresh raspberries with a bit of sugar and strain to remove seeds.
6. Serve slices of tart drizzled with raspberry coulis and topped with fresh raspberries.

Tips for Success with MKR Recipes

To ensure that your cooking experience is as enjoyable and successful as the contestants on "My Kitchen Rules," consider the following tips:

1. Prepare Your Ingredients Ahead of Time

Mise en place is key in cooking. Have all your ingredients measured, chopped, and ready before you start cooking. This will streamline your process and help avoid any last-minute rush.

2. Embrace Seasoning

Don't be afraid to experiment with herbs, spices, and seasonings. They can dramatically enhance the flavor of your dishes. Taste as you go and adjust accordingly.

3. Focus on Presentation

Take a cue from MKR contestants by paying attention to how you plate your dishes. Use garnishes, different textures, and colors to make your food visually appealing.

4. Don't Rush the Process

Cooking is an art that requires patience. Allow your ingredients to cook properly and give yourself ample time to enjoy the process.

Conclusion

The latest recipes from My Kitchen Rules offer a wonderful opportunity to explore new culinary horizons while honing your skills in the kitchen. From savory dishes like Spicy Thai Green Curry and Deconstructed Beef Wellington to delectable desserts such as Lemon Tart with Raspberry Coulis, there is something for everyone to enjoy.
