Simple Supper Recipe Ideas

Here are three exemplary recipes that embody Nigel Slater's philosophy of simplicity and flavor.

1. Creamy Tomato Pasta

This quick and easy pasta dish is comforting and bursting with flavor, making it an ideal choice for a weekday dinner.

Ingredients:

- 250g pasta (such as penne or spaghetti)
- 400g canned tomatoes
- 200ml double cream
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- A handful of fresh basil
- Salt and pepper to taste
- Grated Parmesan cheese for serving

Instructions:

1. Cook the pasta according to package instructions until al dente, then drain.
2. In a large pan, heat a splash of olive oil and sauté the minced garlic until fragrant.
3. Add the canned tomatoes and cook for about 10 minutes until thickened.
4. Stir in the double cream, allowing it to simmer gently.
5. Combine the drained pasta with the sauce. Season with salt and pepper.
6. Toss in fresh basil just before serving and sprinkle with grated Parmesan.

2. One-Pan Chicken and Vegetables

This one-pan dish is perfect for busy evenings, offering minimal cleanup while still being full of flavor.

Ingredients:

- 4 chicken thighs (bone-in, skin-on)
- 300g baby potatoes, halved
- 200g green beans, trimmed
- 1 lemon, sliced
- 1 onion, quartered
- Olive oil
- Salt and pepper

- Fresh rosemary or thyme

Instructions:

1. Preheat your oven to 200°C (400°F).
2. In a large roasting pan, place the chicken thighs and surround them with potatoes, green beans, and onion.
3. Drizzle with olive oil and season generously with salt, pepper, and herbs.
4. Arrange lemon slices on top of the chicken for added flavor.
5. Roast in the oven for 40-45 minutes, or until the chicken is golden brown and cooked through, and the vegetables are tender.

3. Leek and Potato Soup

A classic comfort food, this soup is creamy without being heavy and highlights the flavors of fresh leeks and potatoes.

Ingredients:

- 2 leeks, cleaned and sliced
- 2 large potatoes, peeled and diced
- 1 onion, chopped
- 1 liter vegetable or chicken stock
- 200ml milk or cream
- Olive oil
- Salt and pepper
- Fresh chives for garnish

Instructions:

1. In a large pot, heat olive oil and sauté the onion and leeks until soft.
2. Add the diced potatoes to the pot and pour in the stock. Bring to a boil, then reduce heat and simmer for about 20 minutes until the potatoes are tender.
3. Use a blender to puree the soup until smooth, then stir in the milk or cream.
4. Season with salt and pepper to taste, and serve garnished with fresh chives.
