2. Best Starter for Beginners

For first-time players, Tepig is often recommended due to its strong offensive capabilities and fewer weaknesses in the early game. However, depending on your playstyle, any of the starters can be effective.

Training and Battling Strategies

A significant aspect of Pokemon Blaze Black is battling and training your Pokemon effectively. Here are some strategies to enhance your gameplay.

1. Team Composition

2. Leveling Up Your Pokemon

To level up your Pokemon efficiently:

- Participate in Battles: Engage in trainer battles whenever possible. They provide more experience than wild Pokemon.
- Use Exp. Share: This item allows Pokemon in your party to gain experience even if they did not participate in battle.
- Participate in Gym Battles: Gym leaders provide significant experience points and are essential for progression.
