Post-Game Locations in Pokémon Black 2

Upon defeating the Pokémon League and becoming the Champion, players unlock several new locations that expand the Unova region experience. These areas provide opportunities to catch rare Pokémon, battle strong trainers, and uncover hidden items. Exploring these zones is crucial for trainers aiming to complete their Pokédex and engage in post-game challenges.

The Black Tower and White Treehollow

The Black Tower (in Black 2) and White Treehollow (in White 2) are towering battle facilities unlocked after the main story. Players can challenge multiple floors filled with increasingly difficult trainers. These locations offer an excellent way to test team strength and earn Battle Points (BP) used for purchasing valuable items.

Giant Chasm

Accessible only after beating the main game, the Giant Chasm is a deep canyon filled with wild Pokémon and trainers. This area is notable for featuring some of the rare and legendary Pokémon that are otherwise unavailable. The terrain and weather conditions within the chasm add variety to encounters and battles.

Nature Preserve

The Nature Preserve is another post-game location that offers a serene environment where players can find rare Pokémon and interact with in-game characters. This area is ideal for trainers interested in exploring nature-themed settings and capturing unique species.

Legendary Pokémon Available After the Main Story

The post-game in Pokémon Black 2 introduces several legendary and mythical Pokémon that are essential for completing the Pokédex. Capturing these powerful creatures requires strategic preparation and knowledge of their habitats and conditions.

Cobalion, Terrakion, and Virizion

These members of the Swords of Justice trio are found in specific locations unlocked after the main storyline. Each has unique type combinations and stats, making them valuable additions to any team. Players must navigate tricky terrain and prepare for challenging battles to capture them.

Keldeo

Keldeo, the fourth member of the Swords of Justice, can be obtained through an in-game event triggered after catching the other trio members. Its unique moves and stats make it a sought-after Pokémon for competitive play and collection.

Other Legendary Pokémon

In addition to the Swords of Justice, Pokémon Black 2 post-game offers access to other legendary Pokémon such as Zekrom, Reshiram, and Kyurem through various in-game events and locations. These encounters often require solving puzzles or completing specific conditions.

The Pokémon World Tournament

One of the most exciting features unlocked in the post-game of Pokémon Black 2 is the Pokémon World Tournament (PWT). This facility allows players to battle against trainers from previous games, including Champions, Gym Leaders, and other notable figures.

Tournament Types and Challenges

The PWT hosts various tournaments, including single battles, double battles, and multi-battles. Players can participate in these tournaments to test their skills against AI-controlled trainers, earning Battle Points and improving their strategies.

Using Rental Teams

For those who prefer not to use their own Pokémon, the PWT offers rental teams. These teams include powerful and diverse Pokémon, allowing players to experience different battle styles and tactics without prior preparation.

Capture Challenge and Rare Pokémon

The Capture Challenge is a unique post-game activity where players race against a timer to capture specific Pokémon. This challenge tests a trainer's speed and efficiency in locating and catching Pokémon, adding an extra layer of excitement.

How the Capture Challenge Works

Players are given a list of target Pokémon to capture within a time limit. Successful completion rewards players with Battle Points and access to rare items. The challenge can be attempted multiple times, encouraging repeated play for mastery.

Rare and Event-Only Pokémon

Post-game content also includes the opportunity to catch rare Pokémon that do not appear during the main story. Some of these Pokémon require specific weather conditions, time of day, or the use of special items to encounter.

Completing the Unova Pokédex Post-Game

Completion of the Unova Pokédex is a major goal for many trainers playing Pokémon Black 2. The post-game provides the necessary means to catch or obtain Pokémon that were not accessible during the main quest.

Trading and Version Exclusives

Some Pokémon are exclusive to Pokémon Black 2 or White 2, requiring players to trade with others to complete their collection. Post-game facilities and features support trading to facilitate Pokédex completion.

Using the Poké Transfer Lab

The Poké Transfer Lab allows players to transfer Pokémon from previous generations, expanding the potential for completing the Pokédex. This feature is especially useful for obtaining rare or event-only Pokémon not native to Unova.

Additional Gameplay Features and Tips

Beyond locations and Pokémon, the post-game in Pokémon Black 2 offers several features and tips that enhance gameplay and provide unique challenges for dedicated trainers.

Battle Subway

The Battle Subway is a battle facility unlocked after the main story, offering players the chance to fight a series of trainers in succession. Success here rewards Battle Points, which can be exchanged for valuable items and TMs.

Secret Bases and Customization

Players can create and customize Secret Bases, personal spaces that offer social and gameplay benefits. These bases can be decorated and used to battle or trade with friends, adding a social dimension to the post-game.

Tips for Efficient Post-Game Progression

- Prepare a balanced team with diverse types to handle various challenges.
- Utilize items such as Repels and status healers to maximize efficiency during Capture Challenges.
- Save frequently, especially before attempting legendary encounters.
- Participate in tournaments to gain Battle Points and improve battle skills.
- Explore all new locations thoroughly for hidden items and rare Pokémon.
