Early Years and Meeting Elvis Presley

Before becoming a household name through her association with Elvis Presley, Priscilla Ann Wagner was born on May 24, 1945, in Brooklyn, New York. Her early years were marked by frequent relocations due to her father's military career, which eventually led her family to move to Germany. It was in Germany, in 1959, that Priscilla met Elvis Presley, who was stationed there as a soldier in the U.S. Army. This meeting was the inception of one of the most famous love stories in entertainment history.

At the age of 14, Priscilla was introduced to Elvis by mutual friends, and despite their age difference—Elvis was 24 at the time—the connection was immediate and deeply impactful. Their relationship was initially kept under wraps due to their age gap and Elvis's status. Priscilla's early dating history is therefore almost synonymous with her meeting and courting by Elvis Presley, which would define much of her personal and public life moving forward.
