Understanding the Chords Used in "Run to You"

"Run to You" features a series of chords that create its memorable melody and emotional resonance. The song is primarily played in the key of A major, which means it uses a combination of major and minor chords that complement each other beautifully. The main chords in the song include:

- A
- B
- Cm
- D
- E

Each of these chords plays a significant role in the overall sound and feel of the song. Below, we will break down how to play these chords and their respective progressions.

Chord Breakdown

A Major (A)

The A major chord is essential for establishing the foundation of "Run to You." To play it:

- Place your index finger on the 2nd fret of the D string (4th string).

- Place your middle finger on the 2nd fret of the G string (3rd string).
- Place your ring finger on the 2nd fret of the B string (2nd string).
- Strum from the A string (5th string) down to the high E string (1st string).

B Major (B)

The B major chord introduces some tension in the song, leading beautifully into the chorus. To play it as a barre chord:

- Use your index finger to barre all the strings at the 2nd fret.
- Place your ring finger on the 4th fret of the A string (5th string).
- Place your pinky finger on the 4th fret of the D string (4th string).
- Place your middle finger on the 4th fret of the G string (3rd string).
- Strum all the strings to get a full sound.

C Minor (Cm)

The C minor chord adds depth to the song's emotional landscape. To play Cm:

- Use your index finger to barre all the strings at the 4th fret.
- Place your ring finger on the 6th fret of the A string (5th string).
- Place your pinky finger on the 6th fret of the D string (4th string).
- Place your middle finger on the 5th fret of the G string (3rd string).
- Strum all the strings.

D Major (D)

The D major chord is bright and uplifting, providing a perfect contrast to the minor chords. To play it:

- Place your index finger on the 2nd fret of the G string (3rd string).
- Place your middle finger on the 2nd fret of the high E string (1st string).
- Place your ring finger on the 3rd fret of the B string (2nd string).
- Strum from the D string (4th string) down to the high E string.

E Major (E)

The E major chord is often used as a transition chord in many songs, including "Run to You." To play it:

- Place your index finger on the 1st fret of the G string (3rd string).
- Place your middle finger on the 2nd fret of the A string (5th string).
- Place your ring finger on the 2nd fret of the D string (4th string).
- Strum all the strings.
